Yamba tames Great Bear

the right stuff for Great Bear

It was not the hottest day of the year, but it was hot. Looked like rain most of the day, but it never really rained. The Ball Strikers arrived at Great Bear ready to wrestle this beast to the ground. Some were successful; others were consumed by the beast.

Dr. Zack Yamba made one of his rare appearances at a Ball Striker event. He proceeded to lap the field in Shippen Cup stroke play with a net 68, 4 strokes clear of Allen Smith, his closest competitor. Yamba outlasted George Weekes in an odd man match to register a 40 Shippen Cup point day. It doesn't get any better than that.

Smith teamed up with Reme Jennings to win their team match. This, combined with Smith's 2nd place finish in stroke play moved him up to 3rd place in the overall Cup race. Mel Knight lost a close individual match to John Cavanaugh, but his T3 in stroke play allowed him to remain in 1st place in the overall Shippen Cup competition.

Tom Culp teamed with Donald Rucker to win their 4 ball match. Culp's T3 in stroke play made him one of the day's top point earners. Keith Kirkland rounded out the top

5 in Great Bear Shippen Cup stroke play. Kirkland's performance kept him in the Shippen Cup race at #7. Eli White, with a match win and T6 in stroke play, is quietly moving up the Shippen Cup leaderboard; now in 5th place.

Top grossers at Great Bear were Dr. Zack Yamba (83), Mel Knight (84), Allen Smith (86), John Cavanaugh (87), Tom Culp (89) and Keith Kirkland (89).

The next Ball Striker event will be a club match against the Baychester club on Saturday, July 27, at Maple Moor in White Plains, NY. The following Sunday (7/28) we are participating in the Duffrettes' annual tri-club event with the Weequahic Golf Club at Weequahic Park. Evites for both of these events have been sent out.

The next Shippen Cup event is scheduled for Saturday, August 10, at Deerwood Country Club (South Jersey).
