Ball Strikers & Baychester negotiate a draw

Baychester point man, Ernie Lanzot (left), and Tony Jenkins discuss old times before the match. Curtis Atkinson prepares to lead his team to a 2-1 match win

In match 2 the Striker team of Curtis Atkinson and Mike Conrad took the front up 6 from Baychester's Willie Phelps and John Williams. Phelps/Williams fought back to take the back by 1 to earn a single point.

Strikers Jimmy Chambers and Garrick Bell took the front up 1 against Ernie Lanzot and Jesse Williams. The Baychester team rebounded to take the back (2 up) and total for 2 points.

Significant planning goes into every Ball Striker event. This Baychester match was hardly an exception. It was initially set up as a 1 PM shotgun start at The Architects'. A Saturday shotgun at Architects'; it doesn't get any better than that! Unfortunately, Baychester could only commit to bring 9 golfers so we lost the shotgun start. We were then notified by Architects' on Friday that our start time was moved up to 12 noon. This last minute change put both clubs in serious scramble mode from that moment until the last group teed off.

I'll spare the details here, but let's just say that the matchup plans that were made went out the window. It was the first tee is open, who is here and, ready or not, get them on the first tee. It's a tribute to the experienced players on both clubs that we were able to pull this off.

The format for the event was team best ball match play (4 ball) with each match worth 3 points; 1 point for winning the front nine, 1 point for winning the back nine and 1 point for winning the combined front and back. Ties split the point.

Match 1 had Ball Strikers Cal Beatty and Jesse Branson versus Baychester's Bruce Jordan and Mervin Edwards. Beatty/Branson went 2 up on the front to capture the 1st point but dropped the back by 5 to surrender 2 points to Jordan/Edwards.

In the last match the Ball Striker team of Greg Ward and Tony Jenkins waited for Baychester's Cedric Hercules and Frank McDonald. Hercules and McDonald never made it. Dave Womack, who was a late scratch, arrived unexpectedly in time for the last tee time. The Strikers sent Tony Jenkins out to represent in this individual match. Jenkins took the front up 2 and the back up 5 for 3 points.

The Ball Strikers and Baychester clubs mutually agreed that the final "impromptu" individual match was unfair as Tony Jenkins is an 8 handicap and Dave Womack is a 19. We also agreed to calling the otherwise very competitive club match a 6-6 draw. We all look forward to the next matchup between our clubs.
