Eli wins Shawnee major & retains control of the Cup

Shawnee was the second major event of the 2015 season. Originally on the schedule as a Ryder Cup format event, logistical and scheduling problems forced the change to a standard individual match play and stroke play Shippen Cup event. The caveat being that, this being a major, double the normal amount of Shippen Cup points were at stake.

Eli White has lead the overall 2015 Shippen Cup competition since the first event back in April. Now, by winning the Shawnee event with a 1st in stroke play and match win, White has added a major to his trophy case, as well as, tightened his grip on the 2015 Shippen Cup title. He is in a good place. Sporting a high handicap and elevating his game at a faster pace than his handicap is decreasing. A definite recipe for success in handicapped competition.

But this is by no means a "fait accompli". Earl Fraser, Greg Ward and George Thomas are within shouting distance of White with ample events, including two majors, remaining on the schedule. Fraser lost a little ground on White but scored a 2nd place finish in stroke play and a match win for a 60 point day. He has a secure hold on 2nd place in the overall Cup race, 30 points behind the leader.

George Thomas placed 4th in Shawnee stroke play and won his match to move up to a T2 with Greg Ward in the overall race. On the day, Thomas matched the point total of Tony Jenkins who placed 3rd in stroke play and tied his match with Darryl Jeffries.

Other match winners at Shawnee were Maurice White, Mel Knight and Dan Williamson. Walter Frye and Errol Blake tied their match.

Top grossers at Shawnee were Tony Jenkins (79), Darryl Jeffries (86), Mel Knight (86), Maurice Brown (86), Greg Ward (88) and Earl Fraser (88).
