Eli vs Fraser. The Thrilla not in Manila

There was a buzz of excitement that accompanied the announcement of the pairings for the Architects' event. As you perused the pairings the third group caught your eye. One might think the hubbub would be about the group three match of reigning club champ, Tony Jenkins and ex Shippen Cup champ, Mel Knight. But the match generating all the excitement was current number 1, Eli White, going head to head with current number 2, Earl Fraser. Eli had a commanding lead in the overall Shippen Cup competition, so it was vital for Fraser to take down number 1 to stay within shouting distance.

The match did not disappoint. Fraser went down 2 holes early in the match, but fought back to even by hole number 11. The match was even going to the last hole and Fraser had to sink a pressure packed par putt to win the match 1&0. Fraser and White both shot net 72 to finish the stroke play at T3. The bad news for Fraser is he still trails Eli by 40 points. The good news is 4 events remain on the Ball Striker schedule including 2 majors.

Almost lost in the excitement was George Weekes winning the Architects' event with a match win and a 1st place finish in stroke play with a net 67. Greg Ward secured a 2nd place finish with a match win and a 2nd place finish in stroke play at net 70. Tony Jenkins rounded out the top 3 with a match win and a T3 in stroke play.

Top grossers at Architects' were Tony Jenkins (78), Greg Ward (84), George Weekes (84), Mel Knight (85), Mike Conrad (87), Rod LeBrew (90) and Earl Fraser (91).
