George Thomas wins SkyView! Eli takes a victory lap

It's that time of year when you throw your clubs in the trunk and cross your fingers and hope the sun will shine on you, as well as, your game. Especially when your destination is SkyView. It could be 90 degrees out and that course will put a chill on you. We all know the SkyView drill. Check to be sure you have your normal complement of balls, and then throw in an extra sleeve or two (or three).

On this day Ball Striker, George Thomas, was up for the challenge. Not only from the course, but his individual Shippen Cup match was against this season's hottest player, Eli White. Thomas won his match and won the stroke play competition with a net 69.

Did I mention that SkyView was a major event awarding double Shippen Cup points.

Maurice Brown placed second in stroke play with a net 73 and won his match. Greg Ward placed third, one stroke behind Brown. Eli White took fourth with a net 78. Mike Conrad and Derrick Bethune each won their match and each scored T5's in stroke play, one stroke behind Eli. Other match winners at SkyView were Harold Gibson, Greg Whitaker and Jesse Branson.

With one event remaining on the 2015 Ball Striker schedule, Eli White has a lock on the overall Shippen Cup championship. Eli has dominated this season's Cup competition and will undoubtedly be a marked man next season.
