The top three Shippen Cup finishers at Fox Hollow were David Williams (left), Maurice Brown (center) and Tony Jenkins

This was the Ball Strikers' first event at Fox Hollow, and hopefully not the last. Everything you want in a golf course. Striking elevation changes; well placed water hazards; beautifully manicured fairways and greens and killer rough (many of us could have done without the killer rough). And to top things off, a perfect day for golf—moderate temperatures, sunny skies and just enough breeze to keep you comfortable. The premium green fee was more than offset by the quality of the course and the relatively close proximity.

Maurice Brown continued his march to the Shippen Cup championship, winning Fox Hollow by placing first in stroke play and teaming with Allen Smith to win their four ball match. Tony Jenkins and David Williams placed T2 in stroke play with net 73's, four strokes behind Brown. Jenkins teamed with Joe Pack to win their four ball match.

Anthony Darby and Donald Rucker finished fourth and fifth respectively in stroke play. Darby and partner, Hugh Lecky won their four ball match. Rucker won his individual match.

Other match winners at Fox Hollow were the team of Garrick Bell and Greg Whitaker and individual match winner, Walter Frye. The team of Derrick Bethune and Harold Gibson tied Fred Alley and Earl Fraser. George Weekes tied Walter Frye in an individual "odd man" match.

Top grossers at Fox Hollow were Tony Jenkins (80), Maurice Brown(83), David Williams( 83), Greg Ward(89), Zack Yamba (89) and Tom Culp(91).
