Jenkins wins Major event at Shawnee. Leads Shippen Cup

This was a major event at a traditionally popular venue for the Ball Strikers. So it's puzzling that only 17 Strikers showed. Those 17 understand that if you want to compete in the Shippen Cup, you must play the majors. And you must play well in the majors. No one knows this better than past club champion, Tony Jenkins. Jenkins collected a whopping 80 Shippen Cup points by winning the stroke play event with a net 69 and winning his individual match.

Errol Blake and Eli White both collected T2's in stroke play with net 71's and each won his individual match. Greg Ward and Earl Fraser placed 4th and 5th respectively to round out the top five in Shawnee stroke play. Fraser and Ward both won their individual matches.

Other match winners at Shawnee were Mel LuSane, Harold Gibson and Maurice Brown. Derrick Bethune and Darryl Jeffries tied their match.

On the strength of his victory at the Shawnee event, Tony Jenkins took over first place in the overall Shippen Cup race.

Maurice Brown dropped to second place, well within striking distance of Jenkins. Eli White, Joseph Holloway and Derrick Bethune place third, fourth and fifth, far behind the leaders. With two major events left in the season, the Shippen Cup race is hardly decided.

Top grossers at Shawnee were Tony Jenkins(76), Darryl Jeffries(84), Greg Ward(85), Errol Blake (89), Eli White(90) and Maurice Brown(90).
