Leak gushes after winning 2018 Club Championship

Strikers from the final group of club championship, round 2 include (left to right) Maurice Brown, Tony Jenkins, Brad Leak and David Williams

Williams extended his lead over Leak to 3 strokes after 27 holes. Jenkins matched Williams' front nine 42 to remain 3 strokes back. Leak then shot 40 on the back. Williams and Jenkins had no answer with back nines of 47 and 45 respectively. The result was a comfortable stroll down the 18th fairway for Leak who reached the 18th tee with a 3 stroke lead over Williams and Jenkins.

Eli White won the net club championship by beating out Zack Yamba in a tiebreaker. Both White and Yamba shot net 143 for the two rounds of the championship. White made up 8 strokes on first round leader, Yamba, who shot a championship competition best net 66 in the first round. White prevailed over Yamba by winning the 1st tiebreaker—best 2nd round net score.

Earl Fraser took the 3rd spot in the net competition after firing a round 2 best net 67 to give him a 2 round net total of 145.

Net flight winners were Earl Fraser for the Calvin Peete flight, Zack Yamba for the Charlie Sifford flight and George Thomas for the Lee Elder flight.

Zack Yamba & Earl Fraser win champ weekend Cup events

The format for the Shippen Cup events on club championship weekend was net stroke play versus the field. Both events are considered majors mandating double points. 20 bonus points were awarded to each Ball Striker finishing the event in the top 50% of the field.

The Saturday round of the 2018 Ball Striker club championship was like too many of the 2018 Ball Striker events: threatened by rain. By this point in the season we were used to the drill. President, Mike Conrad, evaluates all factors; current weather conditions, the forecast, condition of the golf course, distance members must travel. Then Conrad makes the decision to play or cancel.

Saturday's decision was to play. And it was the right decision. Though cool and damp for most of the day, the weather was bearable and the course playable. Dr. Zack Yamba took full advantage and shot a sizzling net 66 to take first place in the Shippen Cup major event. George Thomas took 2nd place with a net 69. Brad leak placed 3rd with a net 71.

The decision to play Sunday's round was a "no brainer". Heavy rain over night Saturday and continued showers forecast throughout the day Sunday mandated the decision to cancel. President Conrad pulled a rabbit out of his hat and was able to re-schedule round 2 the following Sunday at Neshanic. Quite a feat.

Earl Fraser shot net 67 to win the event. Eli White's net 69 placed him in 2nd place. Brad Leak took 3rd with a net 70. Worthy of note is a fourth place finish for Mel Knight who played his first event of the season after recovering from major knee surgery.

There was little drama regarding who would win the 2018 Shippen Cup title. George Thomas had amassed a comfortable lead coming into club championship weekend. Thomas won by a landslide with Brad Leak and Zack Yamba taking 2nd and 3rd respectively.

Top grossers on Saturday were Zack Yamba(76), David Williams(82) and Brad Leak(84).

Top grossers on Sunday were Brad Leak(83), Mel Knight(84) and Allen Smith(85).
