Miracle Mike's last minute switch saves 1st 2019 event

The first event of the season generates high anticipation. Everyone is anxious to shake the winter rust off their game and get a good start to the season's competition. So when I got a call from club president, Mike Conrad, two days before the event and he says that we were not on the Spooky Brook tee sheet for Saturday, I was speechless. But Mike was cool. He said we could get with the Spooky Brook manager, who would not be available until Friday, and try to get them to correct their error. Or we could try to get another venue for the event. Mike said he was going to make some calls and see what he could do about securing another venue. I was thinking, tee times for 27 golfers at a premium course on a Saturday on 2 days notice. Are you kidding me!!! An hour later Mike called back with the news that he had secured the tee times we needed at Riverview. Miracles do happen.

Saturday was a nice enough day for golf. Breezy, but not too, comfortable and no precip. Unfortunately, it had rained hard the previous night. This made for very soggy conditions and the hated "cart path only". But, as I mentioned before, the Strikers were anxious to play. So we all approached the first tee undaunted.

Reining club champion, Brad Leak, and past club champ, Greg Ward, tied for 1st place in Shippen Cup stroke play at Riverview. Each shooting net 72. George Weekes finished 3rd in stroke play at net 73, one stroke ahead of Maurice Brown. Jesse Branson and Hugh Lecky placed T5 at net 77.

Four ball match winners were the teams of Rod LeBrew/Mel LuSane, Maurice Brown/Greg Ward, Keith Kirkland/Hugh Lecky, Errol Blake/Earl Fraser and George Weekes/Joe McLaughlin. Brad Leak and Joseph Holloway won their individual matches.

Top grossers at Riverview were Brad Leak(84), Greg Ward(87), Maurice Brown(88), Allen Smith (89) and George Weekes (91).

Playing in their first Ball Striker competition were rookies, Chuck Smith, Demetrius Brock, Bruce Arthur and Joe McLaughlin. Welcome to the Ball Strikers!

Thanks to all of the Ball Strikers who supported the 50/50. Proceeds from the 50/50 go to help members in need.
