George Thomas emerges as champ at Fox Hollow

The Fox Hollow Shippen Cup event carried added importance for a number of reasons. This was a member/guest event where guests got a true taste of Ball Striker competition. Guests participated in matches and were eligible to enter the skins pool. Most important though, Fox Hollow will host this season's club championship. So Strikers who played the event got an "up close and personal" taste of the tract where all of the season's major titles will be decided during a September weekend of intense competition.

The 2018 Shippen Cup champ, George Thomas, served notice that he will be a force to recon with come club champ weekend. Thomas won the event, shooting the low net round of the day while winning his individual match. The 2015 Shippen Cup champ, Eli White, placed second in stroke play firing a net 69, just one stroke off the leader. Eli teamed with George Gresham to win their four ball match.

Rod LeBrew and George Weekes placed T3 in stroke play with net 69's. Keith Kirkland secured 5th place with a net 70. LeBrew teamed with Maurice Brown to win their four ball match

Other Shippen Cup match winners at Fox Hollow were the teams of Keith Kirkland/Greg Whitaker, Earl Fraser/

Anthony Darby and Brad Leak/Darryl Jeffries. Individual match winners were Mel Knight, George Thomas, Walter Frye, Allen Smith and Garrick Bell.

In the member/guest competition the team of Donald Rucker/Blaine Sadler won their four ball match and Fierce Oliver won his individual match.

Earl Fraser continues as the overall Shippen Cup leader. Maurice Brown, Keith Kirkland and Greg Ward remain within striking distance of the leader.

Top grossers at Fox Hollow were Fierce Oliver (75), Zack Yamba(82), David Williams(84), Mel Knight(85) and Brad Leak (86).
