Knight sweeps top championship weekend titles

Mel Knight (left) and Allen Smith finished first and second respectively in club championship competition

At last year's club championship event Mel Knight was just coming off knee surgery and only played on Sunday. Knight shot 84 that Sunday, one stroke behind the eventual club champ, Brad Leak. That performance was a harbinger of what was coming in 2019. Knight was consistently one of the top three grossers in every 2019 event he played. He continued that strong play in the club championship with a first round 80 to take a one stroke lead over David Williams. Knight's second round 84 gave him a one shot victory for the two rounds; holding off Allen Smith who shot a Sunday best 83. David Williams placed third after fading in round 2.

Knight placed a cherry on top of his championship weekend by also winning the overall Shippen Cup Championship. He moved from fifth to first place over the two weekend Shippen Cup events.

Rod LeBrew won the net club championship with a two round net score of 138, besting Allen Smith by one stroke. LeBrew moved from 8th position after Saturday's round to first place on the strength of Sunday's best net round of 66. Errol Blake placed third with a two day net score of 140.

Net flight winners were Errol Blake for the Calvin Peete flight, Allen Smith for the Charlie Sifford flight and Hugh Lecky for the Lee Elder flight.

Hugh Lecky & Rod LeBrew win champ weekend Cup events

The format for the Shippen Cup events on club championship weekend was net stroke play versus the field. Both events are considered majors mandating double points. 20 bonus points were awarded to each Ball Striker finishing the event in the top 50% of the field.

Breaking news for the champ weekend Shippen Cup competition was Earl Fraser, the overall leader, was a last minute scratch. Fraser moved into first place July 13th at the Galloping Hill event and was able to hold the lead for the three subsequent events leading up to championship weekend. So it was very disappointing that Fraser was not able to compete in the two major Shippen Cup events over champ weekend.

But, make no mistake, the Shippen Cup title was up for grabs in any case with three Strikers within 30 points of the leader and 80 points available to the winner of each weekend event.

High Lecky won the Saturday Cup event and with that victory moved from 8th to 5th place. Maurice Brown placed T6 in the Saturday event which moved him into 1st place, 9 points ahead of Greg Ward. Mel Knight placed 2nd in the Saturday event and moved to 4th place in the overall competition. Fraser in absentia dropped to 3rd place.

The Sunday Shippen Cup event was won by Rod Le-Brew who shot a net 66. Allen Smith and Mel Knight placed T2, four strokes back. George Thomas nailed down 4th place with a net 71 and Bruce Arthur rounded out the top five with a net 72.

In one of the most closely contested Shippen Cup championships ever, Mel Knight's T2 in the Sunday event was good enough to secure him the 2019 Shippen Cup title. Greg Ward landed second place, 11 points behind Knight. Keith Kirkland, Maurice Brown and Errol Blake placed 3rd, 4th and 5th respectively, all within 30 points of the leader.

Top grossers on Saturday were Mel Knight(80), David Williams(81), Allen Smith(82) and Blake Le-Brew(82).

Top grossers on Sunday were Blake LeBrew(75), Allen Smith(83) and Mel Knight(84).
