Ball Strikers fall to Del-Val at Fox Hollow

The team of Greg Ward (left) and Derrick Bethune lead all Ball Striker teams in match points scored

It was a chilly October morning at the Fox Hollow Golf Club...I'm sorry, did I say chilly. What it was is cold! I'm sure all would agree that 37 degrees qualifies as cold. Fortunately, that was the low point. It made it to the 50's by tee off time and topped out in the upper 50's. Combined with sunshine and calm conditions, not a bad day for golf.

The 1st half hour of the morning was spent inside (where it was warm) agreeing on the format for the inter club match. The Ball Strikers were represented by Mel Knight, Derrick Bethune and George Weekes. Arnold Young did most of the talking for the Del-Val golf committee. As hosts, the Ball Strikers were responsible for presenting the format. Our proposal was for two player team best handicapped score match play. one point for winning the front, one point for winning the back and one point for the front & back. Ties earned 1/2 point. Del-Val had some reservations about using handicaps but agreed after some discussion.

The Ball Striker #1 team of Mel Knight and Brad Leak played the Del-Val #1 team of John St. Omer and Shawn Congleto to a tie, each team earning 1.5 points. In the #2 match Del-Val's Stacy Jones and Ed Lewis took down Ball Strikers, David Williams and Allen Smith 2.5

points to 0.5 points. Del-Val extended their lead as their #3 team of Keith Johnson and Roshahn Whitner swept 3 points from the Ball Striker team of Ezra Salami and Garrick Bell.

The Ball Striker #4 team of Greg Ward and Derrick Bethune, likewise, swept 3 points from Del-Val's Lawrence Owes and Kevin Robinson. With the Strikers down by 2 points, Ray Woolfolk and George Weekes cut the lead in half by winning their match with Charles Williams and Elbert Maxwell, 2 to 1. But that's as close as the Strikers would get as Strikers Jesse Branson and Walter Frye tied Greg Barksdale and Tyronne Givens, 1.5 to 1.5.
