Darby's design defeats The Architects'

The Architects' is a championship caliber course. No doubt about it. The Ball Strikers have staged numerous club championships there and likely will stage more in the future. Venues for major events are not chosen arbitrarily. Major venues must be challenging, fair and well maintained. Even though the fairways are wide and, on this Saturday, the heather was cut down, this course offers plenty of challenge. As one of my playing partners said on several occasions, "I'm gonna take my bogev and run like a thief!".

Anthony Darby was ready for the challenge. Evidently, Darby has been waiting for a major event to play his best golf. His net 67 at The Architects' led the field in stroke play competition. Winning his individual match placed a cherry on top and insured his victory in the season's first major event.

Avery Hackett continued his strong play with a second place finish in stroke play and an individual match win. Tony Jenkins finished third in stroke play with a net 69. George Weekes and Errol Blake rounded out the top five in stroke play. Both

Weekes and Blake won their individual matches.

Other match winners at The Architects' were David Williams, Mike Conrad, Walter Frye, Allen Smith, Marlon Matthews, Keith Kirklsnd, Charles Smith, Joe McLaughlin, Earl Fraser, Ray Woolfolk and Walter McNeil.

The Architects' event is a perfect example of how the results of a major event can affect the Shippen Cup competition landscape. Anthony Darby, who did not appear on the Shippen Cup leaderboard after the previous event, is now in first place. So, my Ball Striker friends, the moral of the story is - in order to compete for the Shippen Cup title you must play well in the majors; period; end of story.

Top grossers at The Architects' were Avery Hackett (76), Tony Jenkins(77), Zack Yamba(82), Marlon Matthews(83, David Williams(83) and Allen Smith (84).
