Rucker wins Berkshire event! Darby leads Cup

Berkshire Valley is just a beautiful place. As you drive up to the clubhouse and look up the side of the mountain it's just a breathtaking sight. You see fairways terraced in the side of the mountain, lakes, sand traps and manicured greens. The course has everything. Beauty, challenge and a very courteous and helpful staff.

That was my description of BV from the 4/28/19 edition of the NJBS newsletter. It's all still true so that's why it's being repeated here. What I will add is: what makes BV beautiful and breathtaking also makes it dangerous. Some courses hide danger in blind areas. BV puts the danger in your face and it doesn't let up from hole #1 to hole #18. It can be intimidating. This is a "target" course; no ifs, ands or buts. You must identify your targets and hit them. Bombers stay home or end up at the bottom of the leaderboard.

Donald Rucker was definitely hitting his targets. He shot a net 70 to win the Berkshire Valley Shippen Cup stroke play competition. Rucker won his individual match to cap a perfect 80 point major event.

Marlon Matthews finished second in stroke play, one stroke behind the winner.

Darryl Jeffries and Tony Jenkins scored T3's with net 72's. Mike Conrad rounded out the top five at net 73. Matthews, Jeffries, Jenkins and Conrad all won their individual matches.

Other match winners at Berkshire Valley were Rod LeBrew, Demetrius Brock, Greg Ward, Zack Yamba, Anthony Darby and Allen Smith. Mel LuSane and Joe Holloway halved their match.

Anthony Darby maintains a substantial lead in the overall Shippen Cup competition. With one major event left on the schedule only Keith Kirkland, Zack Yamba and Donald Rucker are mathematically still in the championship race. At this point it is Darby's Shippen Cup Championship to lose.

Top grossers at Berkshire Valley were Marlon Matthews(78), Tony Jenkins (79), Eric Henriquez(83), Donald Rucker(85), Darryl Jeffries(86) and Zack Yamba(87).
