Riverview is a fun course. You may play great or you may play bad but somehow you still seem to be able to smile after your round and have a sense of accomplishment. If you played great, you want to get back and have another great round. If you played bad, you want to get back because you know what you can improve to make your next round there great. And every hole has something about it that makes it stick in your mind. You know how you get to the tee box and you say to yourself "I remember this hole."

Mike Conrad ended his round with a big smile. he validated his first place finish at Green Pond with another first place finish at Riverview. Mike followed an almost perfect front nine with a pedestrian back nine to record a net 66, the top score of the event. Conrad shared the top score with Keith Kirkland who was also smiling at the end of his round. Kirkland played good steady golf, front and back, to post his winning score. Both Kirkland and Conrad won their matches, capping an outstanding performance by both golfers.

Walter Frye shot net 70 to place third in stroke play. Ball Striker rookie, Cornell Nelson, trailed Frye by 2

strokes to take fourth place. Derrick Bethune, Maurice Brown, Joseph Holloway and Burnell Williams all shot net 73 to place T5.

Four ball winners at Riverview were Tony Jenkins/Brad Leak, Allen Smith/Derrick Bethune, Keith Kirkland/Errol Blake, Burnell Williams/Joe McLaughlin, Earl Fraser/Walter Frye and George Thomas/Rod LeBrew.

Errol Blake remains at the top of the overall Shippen Cup standings. He has yet to lose in match play this season and has top ten finishes in stroke play for every event except Riverview. Oh, and did I mention he won this season's only major event. Mike Conrad is making a strong move with consecutive event first place finishes, albeit first place ties. With the Ash Brook major on the horizon, it will be interesting to see if the Conrad juggernaut can be slowed down. Walter Frye is well positioned in third place. His solid play throughout has kept him in the top echelon. Also threatening the leaders are reigning champ Anthony Darby and former champ Mel Knight.

Top grossers at Riverview were Keith Kirkland(82), Mike Conrad(84), Maurice Brown(86) Brad Leak(87) and Allen Smith(87).
