Ball Strikers fall hard to DelVal

Ball Strikers appear ready to rumble at Harbor Pines just before tee off

After losing a close match to the DelVal club in 2019 (9.5 to 8.5) the expectation was for a similarly close match in 2021. You could even rationalize that the Ball Strikers would be favored due to the addition of several strong players since 2019. That was not the case as the Ball Strikers went down hard by a score of 39 to 21.

The format of the match was individual match play with one point awarded for winning the front nine, one point for the back nine and one point for winning the combined front and back. Ties earned 0.5 points for each golfer. The major difference from the 2019 match, which was hosted by the Ball Strikers, is that the 2019 match was handicapped and the 2021 match was not.

The DelVal club made the matchups which were allegedly based on handicaps. Not only were the Ball Strikers left out of the matchup process, but requests for the DelVal golfers handicaps after the match have yet to be honored. Rest assured that the next match, which will be hosted by the Ball Strikers, will feature full transparency in all aspects of the match development process. So when we win (or lose) there will be no excuses. We will lick our wounds until next year when we will meet DelVal with full force.

Despite the club's loss there were some exemplary performances by individual Ball Strikers. Mel Knight, the smiling assassin, and his protégé, Walter Frye, both swept their matches, earning 3 points each. Harold White also swept his match to contribute another 3 points. Brad Leak and David Williams dominated their opponents with 2.5 to 0.5 match wins. Marlon Matthews and Jesse Branson posted ties to post 1.5 points each.

We don't have a date yet for next season's DelVal match but when we do mark it down on your calendar. We want all hands on deck.

Maurice Brown & Tony Jenkins sail to victory in Harbor Pines Shippen Cup Competition

Maurice Brown (left) and Tony Jenkins shared first place in Harbor Pines Shippen Cup competition

Harbor Pines is a premium golf destination located in South Jersey. Twenty three Ball Strikers made the trip to see what this course had in store for them. Everyone left feeling like they had a rewarding experience.

Though all were rewarded, only 2 players captured the major awards. Tony Jenkins and Maurice Brown both shot net 73 to tie for first place in the Harbor Pines Shippen Cup competition.

David Williams placed third with a net 74. Mel Knight, Brad Leak, Hugh Lecky and Burnell Williams all shot net 75 to score T4 in the competition.

Because there was no match play component included in this Shippen Cup event, ten bonus points were awarded to each player finishing in the top 50% of the net stroke play competition.

Mel Knight moved into first place in the overall Shippen Cup, passing Mike Conrad who did not play Harbor Pines and slipped to T3. Errol Blake, with a pedestrian performance at Harbor Pines, still managed to move up to second place. Walter Frye played well enough to move up to T3. Burnell Williams rounded out the top five in the overall Cup standings.

With the top five golfers within 50 points of the leading score, the Shippen Cup title is wide open. With four events and the Club Championship left on the schedule, anyone who plays consistently well can compete for the Shippen Cup title.

Top grossers at Harbor Pines were Tony Jenkins (80), Mel Knight(82), David Williams(82), Marlon Matthews(83), Brad Leak(85), Avery Hackett(86) and Maurice Brown(87).
