Matthews has design for victory at The Architects'

The Ball Strikers definitely have a love/hate relationship with The Architects'. Some members love it and others hate it. Not many in between. What's to love; it's long and challenging. What's to hate; it's long and challenging. In any case, this course demands respect. And if you don't give it that respect, it will eat you up and spit you out.

Also, anyone who is paying attention to the Ball Striker schedule knows that the most consequential events of this season will take place at The Architects' in September. That would be club championship weekend. Playing well that weekend separates the contenders from the pretenders.

So Ball Striker, Marlon Matthews, by winning the The Architects' event in April has made a statement as to where he expects to be come September; IN THE HUNT !!! Matthews shot net 68 to finish Shippen Cup stroke play 3 strokes clear of the field.

Eric Henriquez placed 2nd in stroke play at net 71. Hugh Lecky and Anthony Joyner scored T3 at net 73. All of the top 4 finishers in stroke play also won their four ball matches.

On the strength of his performance at The Architects', Matthews moved into first place in the overall Shippen Cup competition. Hugh Lecky likewise moved up the Shippen cup leaderboard to second place. Keith Kirkland, the previous Shippen Cup front runner, did enough at The Architects' to stay in the top three. Allen Smith, playing good consistent golf, remains a contender in the Shippen Cup race.

Ray Woolfolk injured in freak accident—Ray Woolfolk seriously injured his index finger while helping to free a cart that was stuck on a bridge on the 13th hole. Ray's playing partner, Otis Livingston, rushed Ray to a local medical facility where his injury was treated. Fortunately, Ray's prognosis is for a full recovery. Ray's quote: "Yep, I'm on the mend". We look forward to seeing Ray back on the links soon.
