Ward makes “major” move at Galloping

Many of this season's newsletters have bemoaned the bad luck we have experienced with the weather. We have played through elements that were too cold, too hot, too wet and too windy. The weather for the Galloping Hill event was far from perfect, but when you wake up in the morning and it's pouring rain, you feel fortunate when your group gets in a relatively comfortable round of golf that afternoon.

Greg Ward won the Galloping Hill major Shippen Cup event, shooting a net 68 to finish 4 strokes clear of the field. Ward won his individual match to bank 80 points for the event. He seems to like Galloping Hill. In his last three events there he shot net 69, 74 and 70.

Ball Striker rookie, Justen Dillard, considers Galloping Hill his home course. So it's no surprise he scored a second place finish in stroke play. Donald Rucker placed third at net 73 and Keith Kirkland finished fourth at net 74. Current club champ, Tony Jenkins, and former Shippen Cup champ, Eli White, both shot net 75 to finish at

The race to the 2024 Shippen Cup Title is now coming into focus. The top three, including Greg Ward, Tony Jenkins and Justen Dillard, will be difficult to catch based, not so much on the lead they have established, but more so on the high quality of their play. That being said, the 4.5 and 6 place golfers are more than qualified to close the gap on the front runners. Keith Kirkland, currently in 4th place, is a relentless competitor who is unbeatable when his putter gets hot. Errol Blake is a former Shippen Cup champion known as the smiling assassin. Mistaking his care-free nature as a weakness always proves fatal. Zack Yamba dropped to 6th place only because he skipped the Galloping Hill event. He won the Shippen Cup title last year by a record 171 points. Nothing more need be said about his ability to score Shippen Cup points. So stay tuned. Every event from here on out will be consequential
