Rucker reaches summit at High Bridge Hills

Okay, Olay, Okay !!! The bad news is it rained (AGAIN). The good news is we played anyway. Do you believe it! For the fourth consecutive event, we faced a serious rain threat. For the third consecutive event we played through it. A light, but steady rain for the last 3 hours of the event could not dampen spirits at High Bridge Hills. Twenty five Ball Strikers signed up, and twenty five Ball Strikers showed up, ready to rumble. And rumble they did.

Rainy weather must bring out the best in Donald Rucker and Ray Woolfolk. Rucker was "lights out", shooting net 65 to lap the field in Shippen Cup stroke play. Woolfolk shot net 70 to finish alone in second place. Rucker and Woolfolk were four ball partners. So, needless to say, they won their match.

Greg Cavanaugh finished third at net 72. Tony Jenkins and Perry Medina both shot 73 to finish at T4.

DeLano Bonner's top ten finish in stroke play, and four ball match win with partner, Perry Medina, enabled him to hold onto his lead in the overall Shippen Cup competition. Top ten finishes and match wins also allowed Anthony Darby and Terry Carothers to maintain their second and third place positions. The same deal, top ten & match win, moved Terry Carothers and Tony Jenkins into the top five. But nobody is running away with anything at this point. With four major Shippen Cup events remaining on the schedule, everyone is still in the championship hunt.

PACE

A comment on pace of play. If there is an open hole ahead of you, your group is the problem. You can only control you. So, just make sure everyone in the group is aware of the problem and, hopefully, each golfer will make an effort to close the gap.

Another golfing Saturday, with an imminent forecast of rain....

As you step off the final green, the day's journey flashes through your mind. Each swing, each putt, and every bounce of the ball forms a R&B medley of moments that define your round. The course offered its challenges and surprises, weaving its way into the rhythm of your game.

How was your round?

Did you have a great round that hid all the luck that was shown you? Did you save bogey with a lucky ship?

- Did you save par with a lucky scramble?
- Did you flub a birdie putt only to sink a long par putt?
- Did your teammate put added pressure on your performance or free you up to play better?
- Did you make a birdie or two?
- Do you want to remember or forget your round?
