LuSane takes command of the Shippen Cup

Mel LuSane, played steady golf and shared first place with Curtis Atkinson in Shippen Cup stroke play. Mel teamed with George Gresham to win their fourball match. When the dust cleared and the points were totaled, Mel jumped from 3rd to 1st place in the Shippen Cup competition.

Another strong showing from Jimmy Chambers kept him in 2nd place; tied with the former Shippen Cup leader Cleve Eatman, who did not play in the Shawnee event. Curtis Atkinson, who teamed with Burnell Williams to win their fourball match, moved up to 5th place in the Shippen Cup. Earl Fraser placed 13th in stroke play and with Mike Conrad won their fourball match. Earl moved to 4th place in the Shippen Cup standings.

Other match play winners at Shawnee were the teams of George Evans/Harold Gibson and Darryl Jeffries/Henry Robinson. George Weekes won the lone individual match.

Ball Striker club matches are scheduled for July 9th against Tri County and July 16th against Del Val. Shippen Cup competition will resume July 23rd at the Green Pond event.

Note: Newest Ball Striker John Cavanaugh won the long drive and closest to the pin competitions at Shawnee.

He is the Most Interesting Man in the World

Golf is a social game. The pleasure we experience from playing is largely dependent on our social interaction with the people we play with. At Shawnee I had the pleasure of sharing a golf cart with fellow Ball Striker Grassella Oliphant; Grass for short. Grass is a professional jazz drummer and has played with many of the legendary jazz artists of our time.

As we played golf the stories got more and more interesting. Stories involving names like Billie Holiday, Ahmad Jamal, Lou Donaldson, Sarah Vaughn and on and on. At the end of the round I was sure Grass was "The Most Interesting Man in the World".

Grass has his own Sextet. They will be appearing at Trumpets in Montclair on Friday, June 24th. If you like jazz, you don't want to miss it. Visit Grass' website (www.goliphant.com) or call Trumpets (973-744-2600) for details.

Stay thirsty my friends
