Baychester hands Ball Strikers first defeat of 2012

Former Ball Striker Juan Aponte brought his Baychester club to Bunker Hill loaded for bear (or should we say loaded for Ball Striker). The Ball Strikers arrived boasting an undefeated match record for 2012. When the dust cleared, Baychester prevailed with a 14 - 10 victory. The format for this club match was 2 person team best ball match play (four ball) with 3 points at stake in each match. One point for the front nine, one point for the back and one point for all eighteen. Ties earned ½ point for each team.

Baychester took an early lead when their 1st team of Ken Clark and Fred Morris beat the Striker's team of Jimmy Chambers and John Cavanaugh 2½ - ½. Baychester's 2nd team of Kefy Moges and Tony Smith took down Goodwin Goddard and Allen Smith by the same score. Then Juan Aponte and Tony Jenkins split the 3 points with Strikers Curtis Atkinson and Burnell Williams. In the pivotal 4th match Mel Knight and Darryl Jeffries, two of the Ball Strikers most competitive players, went down ½ - 2½ to Edny Campbell and Norman Pryce.

Rallying the Strikers back from the brink in matches 5 & 6, the teams of Jesse Branson / Keith Kirkland and Tom Culp / Justin Pack swept all 3 points in their matches, tying the score at 9. But the Strikers could muster only a single point in the last two matches as the teams of Mel LuSane / George Weekes and Walter Frye / Harold Gibson both went down ½ - 2½ to the Baychester teams of Bruce Jordan / John Williams and Hercules / Sandra Valle. This resulted in the final tally: Baychester 14, Ball Strikers 10. An enjoyable, competitive match, but Strikers don't like to lose. So put Baychester in your crosshairs for next season.
