Greg Ward wins Ball Striker 2012 club championship

Greg Ward takes 2012 title

Greg Ward outlasted the rest of the field to take the club championship crown by two strokes over Dave Wynn. The first round started Saturday at The Architects' under unsettled skies. Rain, thunder, lightning and gale force winds interrupted first round play on Saturday with all Ball Striker groups on the back nine.

The first round resumed early Sunday morning under much friendlier skies and on a much sogger course. It was decided that all groups would resume play from the tee of the hole where they stopped play. As groups finished their first round, they were sent out for second round play at the earliest open tee time. Architects' did a good job of keeping the championship on track.

Greg Ward, with a championship low round of 81, enjoyed a four stroke lead over Dave Wynn after the first round. Curtis Atkinson and Mel Knight were also within striking distance, down 5 and 6 strokes respectively. Ward shot a pedestrian 87 second round but none of the contenders could go low enough in round 2 to run him down. Knight's 84, Wynn's 85 and Atkinson's 86 were good, but not good enough.

Dave Wynn won the flight A net club championship competition with a net 150 for his two rounds (the gross club champ is not eligible for net flight honors). Mel Knight took second place in flight A with a net 153. Darryl Jeffries and Mike Conrad both posted net 153 scores to top the flight B competition. Jeffries took the flight B title by winning the first tiebreaker; lowest round 2 score.

Ray Woolfolk outdistanced the flight C field with a net 147. George Weekes, with a net 153, was 6 strokes back for flight C runner up. Ed Cosby, with a blistering net 69 in round 2, took flight D honors with a net total of 150. Eli White placed second in flight D with a net 155.

Congrats to all of the club championship competition winners. Also, kudos to all members who participated in this two day event making it competitive and fun for all involved.

Woolfolk takes strangle hold on Shippen Cup lead

Ray Woolfolk has a strategy for winning the Shippen Cup title. Don't worry about the match play competition. Do your best in the stroke play competition and the match play will take care of itself. Kinda hard to argue with the 2012 Shippen Cup champ. With one Shippen Cup event left on the calendar, Woolfolk has a lead that cannot be overcome. He built this lead by placing second in Shippen Cup stroke play in both round 1 and round 2 of the club championship event. This earned him 30 points each round and put him out of reach; over 45 points above the nearest competitor.

Greg Ward, capping an extraordinary championship weekend, won the round 1 Shippen Cup stroke play event with a net 71. Woolfolk carded a net 73 for 2nd place. Dave Wynn and Mel LuSane tied for third with net 75's.

Ed Cosby took his second Shippen Cup event stroke play title of the season with a second round net 69. Cosby's 69 was the lowest net score of the championship weekend. Woolfolk's net 74 put him in second place. Mel Knight, Dave Wynn and Darryl Jeffries tied for third in round 2 with net 75's.

The last event of this season is scheduled for Saturday, October 6 at Skyview. This will be the first Ball Striker event at this venue. This will be a Shippen Cup event featuring individual match play (mano a mano) and stroke play against the field.
