Ward dominates the field at Skyview

Club champion Greg Ward wins Skyview

The last golf event on the Ball Striker 2012 calendar had the club playing Skyview Golf Club for the first time. A tough, but fair, course featuring many elevation changes and blind shots. The course was a bit soggy from the previous day's rain, but on this crisp fall day no one was complaining.

Recently crowned club champion, Greg Ward, showed why he is the club's hottest golfer. Ward's net 70 beat the closest rival, Donald Rucker, by two strokes; earning him the Skyview Shippen Cup strokeplay title. Ward also won his match against an always tough, Mike Conrad.

Donald Rucker managed to find Skyview at the expense of Earl Fraser, who he defeated in his match. Ray Woolfolk left no doubt why he is the overall Shippen Cup for 2012. champ Woolfolk placed third in the Skyview stroke competition and defeated Shippen Cup second place finisher, Darryl Jeffries, in his match. Woolfolk's season total 275 Shippen Cup points placed him 60 points ahead of Jeffries.

Ward and Woolfolk will be marked men come next season. Ball Strikers know that to be the best you have got to beat the best. And Ward and Woolfolk were clearly the top two performers for 2012.

Other match winners at Skyview were Ed Cosby, Greg Whitaker, George Evans, Allen Smith and Morris White. George Thomas and George Weekes tied their match.

Top grossers at Skyview were Greg Ward (81), Ray Woolfolk (87), Donald Rucker (87), and Morris White (88).
